OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

June 2023

Dear Monsignors, Reverend Fathers, Deacons, Seminarians, Women and Men Religious, Beloved Sisters and Brothers,

On June 2, 1943, Pope Pius XII appointed Bishop James A. McFadden as the first bishop of the newly established Diocese of Youngstown. In 1951, the same year he died, Bishop McFadden published a book titled, The March of the Eucharist. In the dedication of this book, Bishop McFadden wrote, "The establishment of a new diocese under the exigencies of a great global war that caused priorities on building materials and restrictions of available labor; and, in addition, a shortage of priests and sisters, many of whom went to the front and offered their services to God and Country, might have been an extremely difficult task, but in reality, it was an undertaking of love. Love begets love and the arduous burdens that had to be confronted were greatly lightened through the generosity, loyal and sincere co-operation of the members of the new diocese."

As we celebrate 80 years of this local Church, we behold the countless acts of love, generosity and collaboration that have made our Church what it is today. Together, we gather in the Mother Church of our diocese to give thanks for all who have been part of this amazing story. And we pray for God's continued blessings on this vine which extends over the counties of Ashtabula, Columbiana, Mahoning, Portage, Stark and Trumbull. With the psalmist we pray, "Turn back again, God of hosts; look down from heaven and see; visit this vine, the stock your right hand has planted, and the son whom you made strong for yourself." (Psalm 80:15-16)

Congratulations! Together, like our ancestors of old, let us continue our march with the Eucharist and let us pray, "That All May Be One."

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend David J. Bonnar

We Come As Members of Your Church

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. We come as members of the Church, reborn in holy waters,
a fam'ly claimed and blessed by God,
beloved sons and daughters. | 4. Some work for justice, bringing peace to suff'ring land or nation,
and some who cherish fragile earth
attend to God's creation. |
| 2. As Jesus came to love and serve and give his life for others,
so we are called to love and serve our sisters and our brothers. | 5. But all are called to reconcile,
repenting and forgiving,
revealing Mercy's lavish love
by other-centered living. |
| 3. Some gather us for Eucharist
around the holy table
to offer Christ and all we are,
to pray as we are able. | 6. We are the hands and feet of Christ
to carry on his mission,
to serve the coming reign of God
by kindness and compassion. |

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Jeremiah 20: 10-13

Responsorial Psalm 69

Marty Haugen

*Be thou a bright flame before me,
Be thou a guiding star above me,
Be thou a smooth path below me,
Be thou a kindly shepherd behind me,
Today, tonight and for ever.*

St. Columba of Iona

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned—for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law.

But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come.

But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

The word of the Lord.

Lectura de la carta del apóstol san Pablo a los romanos

Hermanos:

Por un solo hombre entró el pecado en el mundo y por el pecado entró la muerte, así la muerte paso a todos los hombres, porque todos pecaron.

Antes de la ley de Moisés ya existía el pecado en el mundo y, si bien es cierto que el pecado no se castiga cuando no hay ley, sin embargo, la muerte reinó desde Adán hasta Moisés aun sobre aquéllos que no pecaron como pecó Adán, cuando desobedeció un mandato directo de Dios. Por lo demás, Adán era figura de Cristo, el que había de venir.

Ahora bien, el don de Dios supera con mucho al delito. Pues si por el pecado de uno solo hombre todos fueron castigados con la muerte, por el don de un solo hombre, Jesucristo, se ha desbordado sobre todos la abundancia de la vida y la gracia de Dios.

Palabra de Dios.

That All Be One

1. That all be one as You are one,
With God the Father reigning,
You prayed, O Lord, for those You chose;
Your Church, dear Christ, ordaining.
2. That night with those You loved You knelt
In service to Your brothers,
To teach them service in Your Name,
To cherish one another.
3. Upon the Cross, You brought her forth
With Blood and water flowing.
Reborn through water, cleaned by Blood,
Our souls, for God, obtaining.
4. In faith, and hope, and love we go
To serve the least among us:
The rich, the poor, the sick, the well
For You, O Lord, go with us.
5. Praise to the Father, Spirit, Son
One God, our King Immortal
To Christ our Savior, Shepherd, Lord,
We sing the hymn eternal.

An Irish Blessing

(A favorite of Bishop James W. Malone)

May the blessing of light be with you - light outside and light within.

May sunlight shine upon you and warm your heart
'til it glows like a great peat fire
so that the stranger may come and warm himself by it,
and also a friend.

May a blessed light shine out of the two eyes of you
like a candle set in two windows of a house,
bidding the wanderer to come in out of the storm.

May the blessing of rain - the sweet, soft rain - fall upon your spirit and wash it fair and clean.

May it leave many a shining pool when the blue of heaven shines,
and sometimes a star.

May the blessing of earth - the good, rich earth - be with you.

May you ever have a kindly greeting for those you pass
as you go along its roads.

May the earth be soft under you when you rest upon it,
tired at the end of the day.

May earth rest easy over you when at the last you lie under it.

May the earth rest so lightly over you that your spirit may be out from under it quickly,
and up, and off, and on its way to God.
